

Tefo Molosiwa

Head of Policy & Planning: Safety, Sustainable Development and Risk, De Beers Group

Tefo is an Environmental Scientist with 20 years of experience in the diamond industry. He has a deep understanding and experience of sustainability, having begun his career as an Environmental Learner Official at Jwaneng Mine and culminating his career in Debswana as the Executive Head of Safety and Sustainable Development.

Tefo is currently the Head of Policy & Planning: Safety, Sustainable Development and Risk at De Beers Group. He is accountable for thought leadership in Safety, Occupational Medicine, Occupational Health, Environment, Climate Change, Socio-Economic Development and Social Impact.